General

MFPP Corporate Volunteering Days are administered by Myatt's Fields Park Project, the charity for this 12 acre much-loved Victorian Park in the heart of south east London.

Our community has come together to look after this beautiful space that provides well being and recreation for thousands of people living in dense, poor quality housing.

With cuts to local council budgets we work hard to raise funds to maintain the park landscape, providing sustainable facilities and events for the whole local community's well being. We aim to conserve the Park's heritage and sensitively manage its ecological features, and through our prize-winning greenhouse project we promote local food growing, distributing 45,000 edible plants each year to local community projects. Be part of the team for a day and make your mark on the Park!

MFPP Corporate Volunteering Days can be booked online and offline. All names of those in the Corporate Volunteering group must be provided to the Horticulture Manager or Coordinator on the field day. All personal information will be used in accordance with The Data Protection Act 1998.

We aim to ensure that volunteers understand clearly their role and are provided with appropriate information and guidelines. Failure to adhere to guidance may result in you being asked to cease volunteering.

Volunteers must ensure any fundraising activities adhere to published MFPP policies and guidelines, please refer to our fundraising terms and conditions for more detail.

If you do something that threatens or damages the reputation of MFPP we will ask you to stop volunteering immediately.

You must fully support the aims and objectives of MFPP.

Costs

£400 for a half day (3 hours) or £650 for a full day (5 hours). We can manage up to 8 people per session, held on Wednesdays and Fridays.

We run the days come rain or shine. We will only cancel if the park itself has to close for any reason, such as severe weather or an incident. If you would like to book multiple days that would be wonderful, please contact us to discuss.

If your group can no longer attend the Corporate Volunteering Day you must inform MFPP as soon as possible to reschedule.

All bookings are nonrefundable.
